Synopsis and Description

Currently working as Manager - Aircraft Management Sales at one of the largest Business Aviation companies, after many years working experience as a professional pilot and skydiver.

The aviation has been my passion over the last 21 years, since I started my career at the Swiss Air Force as a paratrooper.

Throughout my career I had the chance to continuously improve my skills, including the development of new skysurfing standards, breaking miscellaneous world records and winning many skydiving competitions around the world.

Career Highlights:

- 1997 Skysurf-World Champion Skydiving FAA
- 1998 Skysurf-World Champion Skydiving SSI
- 2000 Skysurf- US X-Game (silver medal)
- 2002 Airline Transport Pilot License holder
- 2004 Skysurf-Vice World Champion Skydiving FAA
- 2006 Skysurf-World Champion Skydiving FAA

Career Exposure Highlights (media):

- Hired by Swissair to produce a cinema commercial, including ski jumps out of an airplane. This movie has been shown aboard of all Swissair aircraft as part of the inflight-entertainment.
- Hired by Warren Brothers Co. to produce a skydiving movie, with landings on New Zealand's glaciers. This film has been shown on HBO pay-TV with a later cartoon film.
- Hired by the German National TV to perform a demo jump into the "Fernsehgarten", a Sunday morning live show for family entertainment.. The live audience and the TV-spectators could watch the spectacular skydive with the famous boxing star "Henry Maske" as tandem passenger.
- Hired by RedBull to open the international AirRace at Interlaken, Switzerland, with a spectacular skydive. It was aired worldwide by TV-stations and had over 100,000 live spectators.
- Hired by FOX-TV 20th Century to skysurf for the movie "Fantastic Four" into the NASCAR Cup Series race at Lowe's Motor Speedway in North Carolina. 180'000 racing fans in the stadium and over 80 Million TV viewer could see this live jump.
